Know Where To Plant

Knowing where to plant trees around power lines and poles in Alberta, particularly for Battle River Power Coop, is crucial for several reasons. Firstly, it ensures the safety of both the public and power infrastructure by preventing potential hazards such as outages and fires caused by contact between trees and lines. Secondly, strategic tree planting helps maintain reliable electricity transmission, reducing the frequency of service disruptions. Moreover, proper tree placement supports environmental sustainability by minimizing the need for tree trimming, which can disrupt ecosystems and aesthetics. Ultimately, this awareness fosters a harmonious balance between nature and infrastructure, benefiting communities and ecosystems alike.

REMINDER

High Load Moves

You need to contact Battle River Power Coop if you are planning to move an oversized load or equipment, so we can help facilitate the move to avoid damage to power lines.

Is Your Load “Over Height”?

- If the height of your load is more than 4.15 metres (13.6 feet), it's considered “over height” and you'll need to get a permit from Alberta Transportation.
- If the height of your load is more than 5.3 metres (17.4 feet), talk to us. We'll help plan the safest and most efficient route. If needed, we'll escort the move and lift or move power lines.

Please contact the Operations Department to submit a Highload Form:

- Find the Highload Form by visiting www.BRPower.coop and navigating to the “High Load Assessment” page under the “Utility Services” section of the menu.
- Submit the form via email to fieldoperations@brpower.coop.
- If you require assistance, call 1-877-428-3972 and ask for the Operations Department.

We will review your information and advise if the load can proceed or if it requires an escort. If the load requires an escort, we will work with you to review the route and determine appropriate resource allocation.

*Please note Battle River Power Coop requires a minimum of 7 working days to facilitate move requests.
