Meet Your Board of Director Nominees

Malcolm Barr

Malcolm Barr became a director for Battle River Power Coop in 2012 and in 2021 was named Vice-Chairman.

He has served on numerous boards since 2008, which include being president of the Camrose Regional Exhibition, and Alberta Agriculture and Food Council.

Malcolm and his wife, Carol, have lived in Bittern Lake since 1991. He has been a Chartered Accountant for 40 years, and has been involved in public practice in Camrose and Wetaskiwin.

Kaitlyn Brown

Kaitlyn Brown is a Board Director with Battle River Power Coop and has been on the board since 2022.

Other committees include Sedgewick Lion's Club.

Kaitlyn is a professional engineer in good standing with the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta (APEGA). For the last 5 years, she has served as a regulatory specialist providing guidance and facilitating regulatory activities for natural gas and liquid hydrocarbon pipelines in federal and provincial jurisdictions.

Kaitlyn lives in Flagstaff County where her husband's family has called home for the last 2 generations.

Tim Coates

Tim Coates was born and raised in the County of Leduc on the family farm his grandfather settled in 1902. Tim has extensive experience in the education profession. After graduating from the University of Alberta in 1980 he taught for a number of years in Kitscoty and Devon.

In the 1990s, Tim moved to a position with Alberta Education in the Diploma Examinations Sector. Tim left the ministry in 2015 and now works as both an education consultant and a sessional lecturer at the University of Alberta.

Tim and his wife, Val, have been married for over 35 years and have three children; Matthew and Graeme are engineers and Heather is entering her second year of veterinary medicine at the University of Calgary. Tim and Val are currently building their retirement home on the family farm southwest of Leduc. In their spare time, they enjoy back country hiking and camping.

Terry Pederson

Terry Pederson is an Executive Director with Battle River Power Coop and has been with the Association since 1995. Terry resides in Bawlf, Alberta, where he farms with his father and 2 brothers. Terry also works as a Product Specialist for GM Canada and does freelance photography. In his spare time Terry enjoys boating and spending time with his wife, Karen and their five children.

John Winnick

John Winnick joined the association and Battle River Power Coop in 2012, and states he enjoys being a director of Battle River Power Coop. "It's very interesting, I like learning new things, and they are excellent people to work with."

John was born and raised at Chipman, and attended school in Chipman and Lamont. He farms, and has worked in the automobile industry for 38 years in management and sales. He has taken many courses in sales and people management.

He enjoys the outdoors, fishing, and traveling. John and his wife, Jeannette, are about to celebrate their 49th wedding anniversary. They have three daughters and three grandchildren.

Lamont Bullarama Supreme

Last month, BRPC was happy to be a silver sponsor of the Lamont Ag Society's Bullarama Supreme rodeo! We love to support our community and partner with local groups to support events that keep rural Alberta thriving.

Congrats to the winners, Gilmar Santana & Hayden Mulvey who split the Average title, and a big thank you to the volunteers who put this event on. It was a blast!

Helping the Leduc West Antique Society

On May 1st, Battle River Power Coop pitched in to help the Leduc West Antique Society with a pretty serious project – they had to move a massive barn to their beautiful park location where it is now on display! BRPC was pleased to donate the cost of the move. Given we've been a part of our communities for 76 years, we're pretty passionate about preserving our history!

You can see the barn for yourself, on display at the Leduc West Antique Society's Heritage Museum.
